PUBLIC LAND LAW CONFERENCE AT UM FRIDAY, APRIL 9

MISSOULA--

The solicitor general for the U.S. Department of the Interior, William Coldiron, will be among several speakers at a conference on public land law at the University of Montana Friday, April 9.

The conference, sponsored by the UM School of Law and Law Student Division of the American Bar Association, will also feature speakers David H. Getches, law professor at the University of Colorado, Boulder, and Owen L. Anderson, law professor at the University of North Dakota, Grand Forks.

Topics for the conference will include the similarities and differences of federal public land policy; Indian lands and public lands; grazing lease transfers; Montana water rights; oil and gas; and public participation in natural resource decisions.

Registration fees of $25 may be received through April 1; fees after April 1 will be $35. Lunch will be provided. The program begins at 8:15 a.m. in the UM University Center third floor Montana Rooms and will close at 4:30 p.m.

For more information and reservations, interested persons should call the UM law school Public Land Law Review at 243-6568.
